ow Elegant Echoes

Outerwear / Delivery 01.07. - 30.09.25

Light reflects onto a charismatic architectural wall in warm shades of amber. When walking past, it is the mark of our movement that we catch. It is the echo of elegance following us simultaneously. When looking closely, refined details in this movement radiate both strong and soft feminine energy. Our new Autumn Winter 2025 collection moves around this energy, soaks it up and lets it out.

This collection is developed based on the past and the future; like authenticity and novelty. Inspiration echoes from the past, reinterpreted from a new perspective. We want to celebrate the audacious spirit of women who cherish their roots while elegantly embracing the new.

In Elegant Echoes, the essentials shine bright. It is the primary need of a woman's wardrobe. Find purity in design and extensive details. Soft and hard surfaces in shades of Burgundy and Navy Greys with contrast pop colours in Bright Orange and Muted Pink.

This first Autumn drop is defined by trendy bomber and parka jackets, new classic minimal tailored coats and lightweight creative quilted jackets. The second drop is characterized by textures and warm puffers; from trendy pleated puffy surfaces to high shine fashion coats.

Each drop is carefully designed to be styled with matching accessories to complete your new full Autumn Winter 2025 look.

Our muse, our source of inspiration. She reinvents herself each season, fulfilling our new vision on clothing, trends and colours. She arises like a swirling staircase; the foundation built on new lightweight basics, stepping up and adding fluffy waistcoats, with a final climb towards a statement piece, such as our new faux leather midi skirt. Add it all up and your Rino&Pelle look is ready. With new steps taken in our denim and lounge suits we slowly move into autumn. Deep Pink highlights, surrounded by Burgundy shades and opposed by cool Ash Greens, set the tone in this drop.
